2011 SUMMER SERMON SERIES

Re-Imagining RELIGION

YOU ARE NOT THE ONLY ONE...

REV. VICTOR PARACHIN - JUNE 26

An ordained Disciples of Christ minister, All Souls member, Meditation teacher, and author, has reconfigured the relevance of Buddhism for the western world.

IMAM ARTHUR FARAHKHAN - JULY 3

A former leader in the Nation of Islam has had to reconsider his Muslim faith for a more inclusive world.

REV. TAMARA LEBAK - JULY 10

Our Associate Minister's religious journey from mysticism, to atheism, and back again, includes a continued effort to reconstruct a theology that reclaims Jesus.

RANDY POTTS - JULY 17

A grandson of Oral Roberts, who came out as gay, spends his life trying to spread a message of hope to gay youth, and continues to redefine family and faith.

BISHOP CARLTON PEARSON - JULY 24

A fourth-generation Pentecostal preacher converted to universalism and now continues a journey toward freer faith, with his own Gospel of Inclusion.

REV. GERALD L. DAVIS - JULY 31

Our Adjunct Minister is a thrice-reborn Baptist whose faith journey brought him to the United Church of Christ and then to Unitarian Universalism.

MICHAEL DOWD - AUG. 7

A former UCC pastor, now bestselling author and science-based evangelist, is at the leading edge of redefining the role of evolution in American religion.

REV. MARLIN LAVANHAR - AUG. 14

Our Senior Minister will re-imagine Humanism and explore why someone who doesn't believe in God would still want to be a member of a church.
